OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true
Arise and defend it [illegible]
Whose blood bought the banner [illegible]

SATURDAY MORNING MAY 30 1862

Monday's Work

We are on the eve of an important election A great country flourishing beyond all precedent—the asylum of the oppressed of all nations—every man enjoying all the rights and privileges necessary for happiness—is sought to be sundered by ambitious men who could not rule it so as to make slavery universal and freedom sectional Without just cause they have sought to break up the Government and establish another whose corner stone should be human slavery In the progress of the rebellion they inaugurated, all the decencies and humanities of civilized life have been outraged and they are still endeavoring, by desperate efforts, to accomplish their designs

The Constitutional Government has resisted this rebellion Patriotic men every where have sacrificed property and life to sustain the Government in all its proportions which was given to us by our fathers Most unfortunately in the loyal States there are numerous partisans of the rebellion who have sought in every possible manner to embarrass the Government in the prosecution of its design and to encourage the rebellion These semi rebels have denounced the Government in all forms for making efforts to sustain its existence, while they have never complained of the acts of the rebels seeking its destruction

These semi-rebels have had the hardihood to present to the people of Oregon a ticket for the election to take place on Monday, every man on which notoriously sympathizes with rebellion They hope to elect it and thus to place Oregon in opposition to the Government Every deceptive act is used to assist in the accomplishment of this object

These matters have all been discussed before our people The antecedents of parties have now no necessary connection with the present condition of our National affairs The question with our people to decide is—"ARE YOU FOR RESTORING THIS GOVERNMENT, IN ALL ITS CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT, AND FOR CRUSHING THIS REBELLION, THE OBJECT OF WHICH IS TO RAISE ANOTHER GOVERNMENT, BASED ON SLAVERY, UPON ITS RUINS" This is the question, the issue and every voter of Oregon will decide it for himself, and will either prove himself to be a friend of our government, or a sympathizer with rebellion

There is no avoiding this issue. The old issues of party are dead In the language of Douglas, "WE ARE NOW TO ASCERTAIN WHETHER WE HAVE A COUNTRY"

In this contest we have as we believe, done our duty. We have abandoned all party antecedents—cast them away—and only contended for the re establishment of our government as it was before the arms of traitors were raised to destroy it, a work which will be accomplished, though there may be a numerous party in Oregon who willingly in the coming election throw themselves at the feet of Jeff Davis

We say to all lovers of the Union—"GOD AND OUR COUNTRY"

"The Star Spangled Banner—long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave"

Your Record

VOTERS OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY On Monday next, the 2d day of June, you will be called upon to record your votes for your country and your country's cause or against it—for the Union or against it How would you desire your choice on this occasion to be made public when this great rebellion is crushed, as it surely will be? Do you want to see your names recorded on the side of the Union when the time comes in which its friends shall be reckoned, or are you determined to risk the consequences that will surely fall upon those who are now giving aid and comfort to the enemy? How will you appear when called upon to give evidence of your loyalty, faith and devotion to the glorious cause of freedom and national honor?

"Look Before You Leap."

There are momentous questions, therefore we conjure you, by all you hold sacred and dear in life—by your good name by the love of reputation for the sake of yourselves, your children and your children's children—that you decide wisely Better would it be for you that a mill stone was tied to your necks and your bodies plunged in the surging waves of Columbia's angry waters, than that you should, by your voice and votes, aid, countenance and support the masked ticket of Secession and treason Life is only dear when coupled with a good name and a consciousness that you have done your duty that you have rendered what little service to your country you could when called upon that you have declared unmistakably and unequivocally, in favor of the government of your forefathers, and for the perpetuity of its holy institutions

Monday Next

Voters of Oregon remember that on Monday next is to be decided by your votes the great and important question whether Oregon is to remain true and loyal to the Union, or not! Whether its citizens are in favor of maintaining the constitution laws and its government of this great nation, or not whether they are in favor of sustaining the Government against a despotic and wicked rebellion or not, whether they are willing to uphold and assist the Administration, the legally constituted authorities of the land in this its hour of greatest need, while trying to preserve the Union and perpetuate the blessings of civil liberty and the rights of a free people, or not whether they will consent to see the proud flag of our country that beautiful ensign of our national pride honor glory and power, ignominiously struck from its mast head and trailed and trodden in the dust of disgrace and shame, to become a mock and a hiss to all the world, and a gratifying source of pleasure to the kings and despots of the earth or not, whether they are in favor of successfully demonstrating the great problem of self government and the rights of the people to govern and control themselves, or not in short whether we have a Government or not or whether we have had only a myth, a deception, an ephemeral national existence that can and will be blown out by the first important adverse breath.

Such are the issues at stake now, good people of Oregon These are the questions to be decided by you at the ballot box on next Monday Take heed and let no man deceive you Great efforts have been and will be made to draw your attention off on to minor and less important reflections All manner of artifice cunning and ingenious devices, pretensions and professions will be made to mislead your judgment and secure your votes The black and terrible consequences of their success in this struggle is cautiously covered up and hid from view under their apparently white robes of innocence and Pharasaical professions of devotion to the righteous and holy cause of American freedom and the institutions of our beloved country But it is a flimsy veil, and can and will be easily thrown off after the contest is over when you may then behold their naked deformity in all its hideous proportions

Again we say, be not deceived! Let no seemingly honest professions of true devotion and sincerity of purpose towards the Government, on their part deceive you into the support of their ticket, or any part of it

Voters of Oregon! loyal and true citizens! stick to your country and your country's cause! support, uphold and assist those whom you know are honest and true Take no man's eleventh hour conversion Trust not those who have or may between this and the election, make loud professions of love to the Union, that were but yesterday exulting over the defeat of the Union forces Such protestations will not do they cannot be genuine You have men in the field as candidates who have been long tried and never deceived, and are willing to be tried again Men who have borne the labors and heat of the day, who have proved themselves worthy to be trusted and can be trusted again. Support such, and such only

Remember, voters of Oregon, "Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty" If you would be free and happy, be vigilant be watchful, BE FAITHFUL

Are you in favor of putting down treason? Do you want to see the rebellion crushed? Would you rejoice to see the Union perfect? Are you in favor of sustaining the Administration in its efforts to restore peace and harmony by forcing obedience to the laws of our country? Do you desire the reputation, honor, pride and glory of this great nation successfully vindicated before the world? In short, can you repeat with whole heart and soul the ever burning words of Old Hickory "By the Eternal, the Union must and shall be preserved?" Then we say to you, show that desire, demonstrate that favor in unmistakable, unequivocal terms by courageously, patriotically and unitedly surrounding the polls and depositing your suffrages for the UNION TICKET!

A CONTRABAND'S DESCRIPTION —A letter from a soldier at Newport News, relates the following incident, giving a slave woman's account of the capture of the Rebel batteries on General McClellan's advance upon Yorktown:

The attack on the batteries cannot be better described than in the words of an old contraband whom I fell in with while on a scout to Young's Mills, the day after its capture She was Secesh, and took us to belong to the same accursed race On asking her if there was much fighting at the battery she replied "Why, Lordy, you won't believe me massa but the Yankee he fire just one round, den commence hollering like de debbel and frew rite over de breastworks, but dey couldn't ketch our folks, (Secesh) dey run so fast" The negro explained in thirty seven words what a "special correspondent" would have found impossible, probably, in half a column.

NEW YORK, May 2[illegible] Prompt [illegible] have been received from most of the Governors of the New England States, calling for additional regiments to meet the demands of the War Department

LOUISVILLE, May 23 —We have received a dispatch from the army before Corinth, dated yesterday, [illegible] skirmishing along the whole line [illegible] In every instance the rebels were driven back Our loss was forty in killed and wounded Deserters [illegible] daily

NEW YORK, May 2[illegible] —The news from Europe is gratifying It is confirmed that the rumors of intervention were without foundation [illegible] of Secessionists and are without foundation

BALTIMORE, May 23 —The Old Point boat has arrived [illegible] states that the steamer from White House brings a number of passengers from the headquarters of McClellan's army, which is in close proximity to Bottom's bridge, over which a portion of the army had already passed The Second Division had orders [illegible] at New Bridge, 7 miles further up and within 8 miles of Richmond

It was rumored that a proposition for an armistice of ten days had been made by the rebels Of course no such idea could be entertained

The advance of our army is understood to be within five miles of Richmond, to which point the enemy had fallen back, with but slight effort to check our onward movement

THE DAILY OREGONIAN [illegible] Book Store [illegible]

REV. T. H. PEARNE'S SPEECH [illegible] the theater last evening—was a powerful and unanswerable and convincing argument in favor of the Government and the Union cause. The house was crowded to overflowing, and the audience frequently responded with enthusiastic cheers. There is no doubt but that it did good, and that, as he frequently said, the Union ticket will be successful on next Monday by at least 1000 majority.

A MISTAKE.—Rev. T. H. Pearne, in his speech last night at the Theatre, stated that the Vancouver Telegraph editorially said "it could not rejoice over Federal victories that those who did were no better than traitors." This is a mistake. The Telegraph never said so, but, on the contrary, did upon several occasions rejoice over the victories achieved by the Union forces. This explanation is due Mr. Hicks, the late editor, and we doubt not it will be cheerfully acknowledged by Mr. Pearne.

HIGH WATER!—The Willamette river raised about three inches yesterday. A considerable portion of the lower part of the city is inundated, and just [illegible] several large store houses, dwellings, &c. will be undermined and fall in consequence of the water soaking under their foundations.

One hundred persons, mostly [illegible], left San Francisco for Victoria on the bark Spitland on the [illegible]. The steamer [illegible] left at four o'clock in the evening of the same day, with a large number of passengers.

"SORTER AND SORTER NOT."—The following card from Judge Page, retracts somewhat from the statement which he is said to have made in a public speech recently made at the Dalles, relative to a certain promissory note against J. R. McBride. Mr. Page says that he "informed" from certain ambiguous reasons given by him that the note in question "had been sent up for collection," but was not positive as to that matter. This is "sorter" backing down. But Mr. Page does not deny saying that such a note had been given by Mr. McBride. This is "sorter not" backing down. Quite ingenious, Judge! Try again.

PORTLAND, May 30th, 1862.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In your issue of the 29th inst., a communication appears over the signature of B. F. Harding, which calls so far as the public are concerned for a statement of what was said by me, at the Dalles, in a public speech relative to John R. McBride, Esq., disclaiming any intention to misrepresent Mr. McBride or any other citizen, and deeming it the duty of all, irrespective of the shafts of calumny that may be sent forth against them, to maintain the truth when uttered, or repair a wrong when done. I submit, that in the speech referred to, the substance of what I said was "That I had been informed (giving at the time the sources of my information) that sundry notes had been sent from California to the Hon. W. H. Rector for collection, against several members of the Legislature, who had voted for Col. Baker for the U. S. Senate, and that they had been placed in the hands of B. F. Harding for attention as an attorney, and had subsequently been returned; that Mr. McBride was a member of that Legislature, and that Mr. Logan had refused to vote for Mr. McB., and I inferred from these facts, that his note among others was so sent." Now sir, any injustice done Mr. McBride by a wrong inference, I cordially desire to amend, because of my respect to him, but not on account of anything said by Mr. Harding, for that is a matter, personal, between ourselves, and not concerning the public at this time.

Very respectfully,
W. W. PAGE.

LATER FROM FORT YUMA.—The subjoined news the Marysville Appeal gets from a private letter, dated at Fort Yuma, May 6th:

"The artillery has arrived, but we are now waiting for the horses to recruit and get [illegible].

"News from the Gila seems to [illegible] Col. West will have to fight [illegible] Tucson. A force of 700 rebels is said to be entrenched fourteen miles this side of the town; but as nobody appears to be in a hurry to send reinforcements to the Colonel, I guess there is not much danger."

NORTH CAROLINA.—As important a piece of news as has been telegraphed, is the announcement that the Governor of North Carolina had refused to furnish Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy any more troops, and had ordered home those in the service. It is stated that a State Convention [illegible] on that course, which, if reliable, places her substantially back in the Union. It would, at any rate, leave her in a neutral position. Governor Stanley has been sent down by the Government, and, if such a condition of the public mind exists as reported, he, in conjunction with Governor Clark, will soon be enabled to bring the Old North State back safely to her anchorage in the Union and under the Constitution.—Sac. Union.

THE OVERLAND MAIL.—From a dispatch received in San Francisco, it appears that the Overland mail coach arrived at Carson City on the 22d inst., Wednesday, in 4 days and 23 hours from Salt Lake City, reporting the road and stock all in good condition. The Overland coaches are only waiting for the eastern end of the road to be in good order, to make quick through trips.

WOOLY.—Somebody says that though the rebels have no very particular objection to Southdown wool, they protest exceedingly against Wool down South.—Shasta Courier.

The Farmer's Courtship.

"Well, well, Jacob, don't be in such haste there's time enough," and Mrs Martin got up from her little round backed rocking chair straightened and smoothed the cushion in the seat, carefully folded up her knitting work and laid it up in a little basket woven of wire and pumpkin seeds, upon the mantle shelf Then giving the fire a vigorous stirring, piled on the chunk and pitchwood aforesaid

"Now, Letty, if you will hand me that fire shovel, I'll haul out a few coals and set the tea to drawing"

A few touches and slight additions to the table, the change of her every day cap for the go-to-meeting one, and Mrs Martin was ready to receive her guests "Seems to me, Letty," she said, wiping her spectacles on the hem of her black silk apron, and adjusting them again, "it seems to me I would ha combed my curls all out straight; you don't look nigh so well as you do with them hanging on your neck"

"Never mind, Aunty, I am quite indifferent to night on the score of personal attractions, I presume there will be no one here this evening on whom I could desire to produce an impression."

This was said lightly and with a quiet smile, but there was a world of disdainful pride in her curving lip and darkening eyes Her aunt regarded her with a look that betrayed surprise and anxious concern

"Why, how strangely you talk, child, I am sure your Uncle is greatly concerned that you should take a liking to one of the young men and be to you"

At this malapropos moment the guests were ushered in Mrs. Martin made them heartily welcome by her unaffected cordiality and kindliness of manner Letty received them with a distant reserve that made her Uncle look twice at her, as if in doubt whether or not it were really she

Mr Kimball, the senior of the two, regarded her admirably; he was a pleasant, social man, well educated and uniformly gallant and attentive to the ladies Mr Lee, somewhat past twenty, did not possess that courtly grace and elegant polish consequent upon a life of gentle breeding and frequent mingling in circles of refinement Nor were his manners marked by the slightest approach to boorish roughness, free from frivolity and conceit, he affected nothing, nor made any pretensions to more than he really was Yet he stamped himself, his words, gestures and acts upon the public mind, leaving a fadeless memory where men of the highest culture and most elegant bearing had failed to make an impression There was that in the development of his head, the cast of his features, his earnest utterance, the fresh and simple, yet forcible manner in which he expressed his sentiments, that left an imperishable mark upon the minds he came in contact with. He was shy and reserved in the presence of ladies. In all those elegant little nothings and plots, trivial sayings that with many fill up conversation, and in which Mr Kimball was an adept, he was a novice And it was not until the table had been cleared away, and the circle gathered around the fire, the little hexagon stand mounted with two tallow candles in polished brass candlesticks, flanked by a painted tin supping tray between them, that the conversation went beyond mere gossip, the weather, and correspondingly light chit chat

Hitherto Mr. Lee had been a silent spectator now, with graceful tact he provoked a spirited discussion, into which he entered with the ardor and earnestness characteristic of him Mr Martin in the corner, leaning over the firestick, looked and listened with pleased satisfaction, now and then putting in a word, or a nod of approval. His wife dropped her work to hear, never knitting a stitch for two whole hours, a breach of industry she had not been guilty of on a week day evening, since she was a girl in her father's house. Letty, provoked and surprised at herself, kept making false stitches in her embroidery, which, nevertheless, she labored at assiduously, enjoying the pleasure the ensuing morning of having it all to take out and work over again

At ten the guests arose to leave, their host and hostess urging them to remain all night

Letty was silent Mr Kimball bade her good night with a delicate compliment and a courtly bow over the little hand he warmly pressed Mr Lee, who had scarcely addressed her, directly, during the evening, made a grave, silent bow at the door.

"Well, Letty," said Uncle Martin, after the ringing of their sleigh bells were lost in the distance, and he was standing the firebrands in the corner and raking ashes over the bed of glowing coals, "How did you like the husband I picked out for you?"

There was a quiet rustle, a softly closing door, and by the time he turned to make a renewal of the question, she had suddenly and mysteriously vanished.

The next morning there was a repetition of the query Letty looked up from the chair she was dusting, with well affected surprise and seeming want of comprehension

"He means them two fellers that were here last night," interposed Aunty

"Oh, yes—them two fellows," repeated Letty with a smile of enlightenment

"What do you think of them?"

"O they are well enough," she replied with a sudden assumption of majestic indifference

"Well enough! is that all?"

"Not quite:—one of them is too much in love with himself to feel a secondary attachment, the other lacked the grace to say good evening to your humble servant"

Her Uncle shook his head with a frown of disappointment "This comes of them winters at your Aunt Gray's. I was afraid this would be the upshot of it—turning up your nose at every feller that aint just so citified" And warming with the subject he launched forth in eloquent praise of the noble and honorable qualities of their late guests, but which was greatly abridged by Letty's suddenly remembering that she must help Aunty clear away the breakfast dishes.

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse Nervous Debility Syphilis in all its stages Strictures, Gleet, Gravel Diabetes diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder Mercurial Rheumatism Scrofula Pains in the Bones and Ankles diseases of the Lungs Throat Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs Cancers Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling Loss of Memory Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes Loss of Sight Wakefulness Dyspepsia Liver Diseases Eruptions upon the Face Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure The medicines prescribed are pleasant without odor entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam During fifteen years of practice in Europe the Atlantic States and California I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health as they are the first cause of consumption scrofula, and many other diseases and should be a terror to the human family A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin eyes, throat and lungs entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave It destroys the nervous system rapidly wastes away the energies of life causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures — Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter

All business correspondence strictly confidential Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute Sacramento street below Montgomery opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude make known their cases and remedial agent and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted

Certificate—The undersigned desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr L J Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health, Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks and in several instances months of their treatment I found to my unutterable horror that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming in their features and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain medicine would be of little consequence I despaired of ever regaining my health strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope called upon Dr Czapkay who after examining my case prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result I resolved to place myself immediately under his care and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear and my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and groins the weakness of my limbs the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful startling, and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life, [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my [illegible] hand With this view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] against the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice being assured by my own experience [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure will be [illegible]
